European Countries open more Visa Centres across Russia. In attempt to make Europe more accessible to Russians in the regions, a large no of Visa centres have opened in Russia which is B operated by VFS Global, who work with many of the EU countries. Austria has recently expanded its presence and it is now possible to obtain Austrian visas in the following regional cities of Russia: Nizhny Novgorod, Krasnodar, Kazan, Novosibirsk, Samara and Rostov-on-Don. 300,000 Russians are expected to visit Austria by the end of 2011, which will be a 30%.
