

India to soon open tourism office in Moscow

India will soon open a regional tourism office in Moscow, Tourism Minister Subodh Kant Sahai announced in the Russian capital. A joint India-Russia Tourist Trade forum will also be formed at the Indian embassy in Moscow to promote tourism between the two countries, Sahai, currently on a tour of Russia, Ukraine and Kazakhstan, said.

Sahai stressed on the need to improve connectivity between cities of India and Russia.

www.indianexpress.com