

Transaero starts new flights to Kuala Lumpur, Singapore and to Seychelles from Moscow

20th October 2011

INTERFAX-TOURISM

<http://www.interfax.ru/tourism/touri...1466&id=213083>

Transaero celebrating its 20th anniversary opens three new direct regular flights to exotic destinations, to Kuala Lumpur, Singapore and to Seychelles, the carrier's press-service informs on Thursday. Starting December 30th 2011 flight Moscow - Kuala Lumpur will be carried out every Friday. In March 2012 frequency of flights to the capital of Malaysia will increase to twice weekly.

Since January 1st 2012 every Sunday Transaero will carry out new flight Moscow-Singapore using Boeing 777. Now Transaero has a codeshare agreement with Singapore Airlines for daily flights. Adding new Transaero flight will increase total number of direct flights between Moscow and Singapore to eight weekly.

Besides, starting January 2nd 2012 Transaero starts one in 10 days new flight to Seychelles on a route Moscow - Mahe.

As it is marked in release, purchasing of tickets for new Transaero flights to Kuala Lumpur, Singapore and to Seychelles during October 25th till November 15th 2011 will give a special anniversary discount of 25 % from all tariffs in all classes of service all passengers.

Thus, as a whole the airline will carry out direct flights on such exotic routes, as Maldives, Mauritius, Seychelles, Singapore, Kuala Lumpur, Cancun (Mexico), to Punta Cana (Dominican republic), Varadero (Cuba), Goa (India), Bangkok and Phuket (Thailand), Ho Chi Minh (Vietnam).